

Ready To Work Classes

Sponsored by

Reid State Technical College and the Department of Postsecondary Education

The free classes are provided to help individuals to renew skills or to receive training needed for the new jobs that are coming to the Atmore area. It is not necessary have the students to have their GED or high school diploma, or a college degree to attend the classes. Individuals may enroll at any time. Each person will be able to receive one-on-one assistance and work on their own skill level while building their skills to certification status.

The classes are held each Tuesday and Thursday morning from 9 AM-12:00 PM in the Atmore YMCA Building at 501 S. Pensacola Avenue. Anyone who may be interested in attending may contact Mrs. Lynda Davis at 251-578-1462 or by email at ldavis@rstc.edu.

The training will include:

- Computer Skills
- Basic Education
- Problem Solving
- Workplace Behavior
- Manufacturing
- Job Acquisition
- Leadership Skills

A certificate will be awarded to graduates that have achieved a 95% attendance and punctuality rated during the course. The minimum requirements that must be met for the six skills standards are:

Attitude	Organizational Skills
Attendance	Motivation
Punctuality	Work Ethics
